Tickets for the opening performance by the Whiteside-Strauss company are now on sale at Kendrick's. The lady's coat to be given away at the Saturday matinee is now on exhibition in the Homer Fitts company's window, and is attracting a great deal of attention.

A large company of University club members and friends gathered last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jackson of South Main street and read Shakespeare's "King Lear." The next scheduled meeting of the club is on the night of February 22, when the annual banquet will be held.

G. H. Van Dyke and J. H. Hinman of Coos, N. H., who have been in this city buying horses, started for Coos yesterday with five horses, which they purchased here. They bought the large pair of dappled grays that F. A. Clayton used on the city teams last summer and a pair of blacks and a bay from the Smith Stock farm.

A very interesting debate was given by the members of the Methodist brotherhood at the meeting last night. The subject, "Resolved, That Woman Suffrage is Desirable," was represented on the affirmative by C. H. Cushman and A. P. Batchelder and on the negative by Mr. Hathaway and Sidney Oliver. A decision was rendered in favor of the negative.

A new branch of the quarrymen's union was formed at Amherst, Ohio, this week by Secretary P. F. McCarthy of this city, the membership being twenty per cent of the total number of quarrymen employed there at the start, and Secretary McCarthy expected to get over a thousand names on the roll. The Amherst quarrymen had just had a strike when Secretary McCarthy arrived there.

The Ladies of the Macabees had a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Place last night, when an informal reception was held for the lady commander, Mrs. Margaret Smith, twenty members being present. A fine musical program was given by Lady Russell, after which refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. Retiring Commander Finance Hammond was the recipient of a very handsome present from the ladies, which shows the high esteem in which she has been held for the past year as lady commander of Harmon hive, No. 1, L. O. T. M.

Honore E. Soules of Barre is winning quite a reputation in athletics at Clark college, Worcester, Mass., being the second largest point-winner in the annual interschool competition held in the college gymnasium last Tuesday night by winning a total of 27 points. The winner, Douglas Basnet of Florida, got 33 points, and he and Soules were awarded the "C" for taking at least three first prizes, the latter having captured four. His chief victory was winning the mile run in 20 minutes and 40 seconds, which was considered good time, says the Worcester Telegram, considering the short track and sharp turns.

The Legion of Honor

Military feature drama. Scenes in Germany at the time of the great French revolution. Napoleon Bonaparte is active in the picture and at the end decorates a young hero with the prized cross of the Legion of Honor. Great—see it.

The New Chief

Funny case where a hobo is taken for a high official and is treated to the time of his life.

Persistent Poet

Witness the dire results of being a poor poet. Troubles him because he troubles trouble.

Iona, the White Squaw

One of those famous Western Indian pictures based on historical facts. The interest is greater because the incidents, many of them, are true. It substantiates the saying—truth is stranger than fiction. Lots of life and excitement.

The Blind Detective

This one is the crack laugh creator of the show.
